RPH Extends Its Reach into Ohio, Western PA, Indiana, Kentucky, and West Virginia Through Collaboration with Roofing & Exterior Products Services of Ohio

San Antonio, Texas (November 27, 2023) - RPH, a leading provider of innovative building envelope solutions specializing in roof and wall penetration protection, as well as top-tier safe room/storm shelter products, is excited to introduce its exclusive partnership with Roofing & Exterior Products Services of Ohio (REPS), for coverage of Ohio, Western Pennsylvania, Indiana, Kentucky, and West Virginia.

Effective immediately, REPS will exclusively represent RPH in the regions of Ohio, Western Pennsylvania, Indiana, Kentucky, and West Virginia, highlighting the VAULT® and CYCLONE® product lines. These top-notch solutions not only guarantee adherence to FEMA and ICC codes with their robust and weather-resistant design but also provide customizable options to meet precise project needs. Backed by comprehensive warranties, these products offer a dependable and superior alternative to other available options.

Don Hans, Sales Development Manager at RPH, stated, "We're thrilled to have REPS on board as our exclusive representatives in the territory. They bring with them an impeccable reputation in the building envelope and roofing industry, making them a valuable partner to drive our business growth in their territory."

Bill Spencer, President of REPS, shared his excitement, stating, "We are pleased to introduce RPH into our product portfolio. Their innovative solutions and commitment to excellence seamlessly complement our dedication to delivering top-quality offerings to our clients. We eagerly anticipate a fruitful partnership that serves the best interests of both our organizations and, most importantly, our valued customers."

Contractors, architects, building owners, and decision-makers consistently choose RPH's VAULT® and CYCLONE® lines for applications in data centers, mission critical facilities, K-12 schools, and various commercial buildings. This partnership between RPH and REPS reinforces RPH's commitment to delivering engineering solutions to facilities across Ohio, Western Pennsylvania, Indiana, Kentucky, and West Virginia.

For inquiries about RPH products in Ohio, Western Pennsylvania, Indiana, Kentucky, and West Virginia, please contact Bill Spencer at REPS by emailing him at bill.spencer@repsfohio.com or visit REPS at www.repsfohio.com.
